When was the last time you challenged yourself?
When was the last time you built something of your own?

Consider a New Angle

Here’s an opportunity to get both sides of your brain into the mix. To think and to build. It’s a program that engages your hands, your eyes, and your mind—where you can experience the intersection between personal creative exploration, the design professions, and broader societal issues such as environmental sustainability and spatial justice.

Design Discovery Harvard GSD

Spend your summer learning first-hand what it’s like to pursue a graduate-level studio-based education in architecture, landscape architecture, or urban planning & design.
